In remembrance

Rande Allen Money was born on December 9, 1951 in Cody, Wyoming to Gailand and Leona Money. They moved to Buffalo in 1960. Rande graduated from Buffalo High School in 1970. After high school he attended the University of Wyoming, where he met the love of his life, Kathryn Gibbs.

In 1971 he enlisted in the United States Air Force.

He was stationed at Myrtle Beach, followed by Warren Air Force Base. Rande was honorably discharged in 1973. Kathryn and he were married on July 21, 1973, in Gillette, Wyoming, and made their home in Buffalo. After they were married Rande served with the National Guard. Their first daughter Heather was born in 1974, followed by their second daughter Paige in 1976. Rande worked numerous jobs in his lifetime, including construction, cooking at the Crossroads, delivering Frito-Lay, Ray's Liquor, the post office, and Wolf Creek Charitable Foundation. For the past several years, he had been the IT Department Manager for Johnson County, and the Lake DeSmet Operations Manager.

Rande was perhaps best known for his love of falconry, a hobby he had done for well over 30 years. Flying his birds was one of the greatest joys in his life. He also loved watching old TV shows, and spending time in the outdoors fishing, camping, geocaching and riding his Harley. He was an amazing singer, having been a member of a barbershop quartet, as well as the Catholic Church choir. His latest passion was building and flying his RC planes. Rande received the most joy out of life when he was spending time with his family. His two grandsons, Peyton and Brecken, were his world.

Rande is survived by his wife Kathy Money of Buffalo; two daughters, Heather Miller and her husband Jason of Cheyenne and Paige Money of Buffalo; his mother Leona Money, two brothers, Kerry Money and his wife Rhonda of Buffalo and David Money and his partner Jennifer Kennedy of Santé Fe, New Mexico; two sisters, Christine Hall and her husband Rich of Buffalo and Cathy Nicholas and her husband Tom of Cheyenne; two grand- children, Peyton and Brecken both of Cheyenne and numerous nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his father Gailand Money.
