

People are the solution.

Fifty years ago, a passion for Peregrine Falcons sparked a movement that became The Peregrine Fund. Falconers and scientists shared their expertise, and so did countless others whose unique contributions shaped a lasting legacy. Visit peregrinefund.org/thankyou to learn about the collaborators who continue to make it possible to conserve birds of prey worldwide.

The Peregrine Fund's planned giving society

You can give the gift of raptor conservation to future generations by including The Peregrine Fund in your estate plans. You will join a special group of donors who receive permanent recognition at the World Center for Birds of Prey in Boise, invitations to special events, and recognition in the annual report (unless you wish to be anonymous).

Your bequest, annuity, or other planned gift further strengthens the foundation of all our conservation work, giving future generations the tools they'll need for a changing world.

Please let us know when you include The Peregrine Fund in your plans:
